TOP 10 REASONS — WE ARE — BIG MEETING COUNTRY

"I've Always Wanted To Go"

Montana ranks high as a bucket list state because of its beautiful scenery, iconic sites and attractions.

"It's All About You"

The Visit Billings staff has a unique combination of Western hospitality and an eye for detail. With their help, meetings run smoothly from start to finish.

Proximity

Travel from the airport to downtown Billings in less than five minutes. In Montana, we call that being a "section away."

Best Mix in Montana

There's a huge variety of options for dining, entertainment, and nightlife in Montana's largest city - more than anywhere else in the state.

Montana Avenue

They call downtown Billings' Main Street "Montana Avenue" for a reason. Enjoy galleries, museums, breweries, and a dynamic food scene along this historic street.

River to Rims

From rappelling down the Rimrocks or biking along the Yellowstone River, to rooftop yoga, SUP boarding at Lake Elmo State Park or horseback riding in the hills, outdoor adventure awaits all meeting attendees visiting Billings.

Instant Immersion

The city is surrounded by a unique cultural scene with an inviting vibe. Discover it in our music, arts and adventurous spirit.

Local Flavor

Billings is home to Montana's only walkable brewery tour. It brings a whole new meaning to the term "breakout session."

Affordability

Billings offers big city amenities with affordable hotel rates, meeting spaces and transportation. It's perfect for cost-efficient gatherings of any size.

Adventure Awaits

As Montana's trailhead, Billings can be the catalyst to seeing all that the state has to offer. Bucket-list attractions like Yellowstone National Park, Beartooth Highway and many famous national monuments are all within reach.

est. 1877

Billings offers a one-of-a-kind Trail Guides program allowing local businesses and key local influencers to act as brand ambassadors and visitor resources for the destination. All Trail Guides have extensive knowledge on the best of Billings and are able to show off their local flair to every visitor they encounter. Trail Guides are easily recognizable with designated pins and window clings, letting visitors know they are a resource for discovering Billings. After all, a destination is only as strong as the local people and businesses that live and breathe it every day.

EXPERIENCES

As the largest city in the state, Billings is a vibrant urban destination. Meeting attendees will be immersed in all the local flavor, diverse shopping, and award-winning cuisine, arts and culture that Billings has to offer.

EXPERIENTIAL TEAM-BUILDING ACTIVITIES

Discover boundless adventures in team building with several of the unique offerings in Billings. Show your group the beauty of the Yellowstone River Valley on horseback with Bitter Creek Outfitters. They offer a fun and friendly environment that will make any conference one to remember. Whether you're rappelling down them or biking on one of their many trails, the Rimrocks offer rare team-building moments too. These great sandstone formations surrounding Billings will add excitement to your trip and offer spectacular views of the city.

Billings BREW TRAIL

Montana's only walkable brewery trail is located in the heart of downtown Billings. This self-guided tour is made up of several breweries, a few distilleries and one cider house, most of which are within walking distance. Take this 1.5-mile brewery route and enjoy historic sites along the way.

LOCATION

Big Meeting Country, and all the resources it offers, is just a convenient, non-stop flight away. It's easy to get to and easy to explore, but getting attendees to leave could be a bit more difficult.

AIR SERVICE MAP

With convenient non-stop flights serving 10 major hubs and more than 4,000 hotel rooms to choose from, Billings offers everything you need for a convenient flight and a great stay. Billings Logan International Airport is just two miles from downtown and only 8 miles from the furthest hotel in Billings. Complimentary shuttle options are available with each meeting and convention hotel, making travel for attendees easier than wrestling a steer.

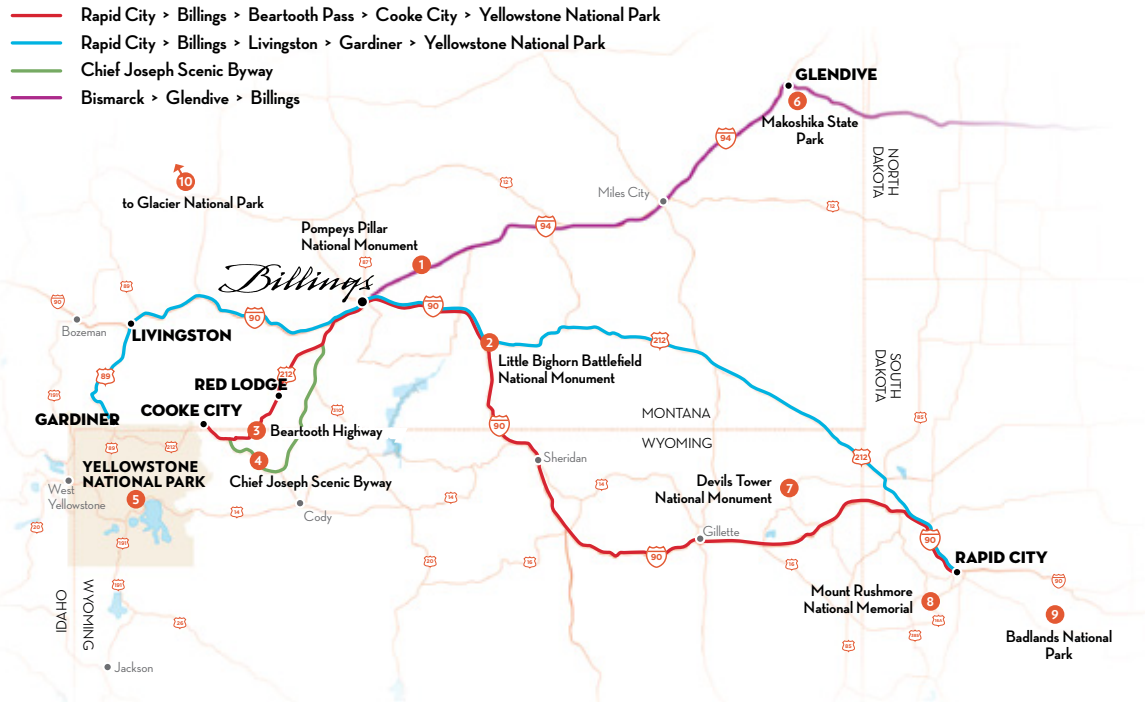

Can you think of anything better than traveling to Big Sky Country and being surrounded by some of America's most iconic monumental sites and attractions... all while hosting a wildly successful event?

Made up of small towns, big ranches and unending horizons, Southeast Montana is sure to surpass expectations. Visit with farmers, ranchers and cowboys while exploring dinosaur tails and warrior trails. Experience the vibrant cultures and historic perspectives of southeastern Montana to gain a sense of the true west. And, don't forget Yellowstone National Park is a beautiful, short drive away.

POINTS OF INTEREST

Bucket-list attractions like Yellowstone National Park, Mount Rushmore, the Badlands and Little Bighorn Battlefield are all within reach for attendees arriving early or staying late.

- 1 Pompeys Pillar National Monument - Home to some of the only remaining physical evidence of the Lewis and Clark Expedition, plus breathtaking views of the Yellowstone River Valley and a terrific interpretive center.
- 2 Little Bighorn Battlefield National Monument - This national monument is on the grounds where Native American forces led by Crazy Horse and Sitting Bull defeated the U.S. Army troops of Lt. Col. George Custer in the Battle of the Little Bighorn in 1876. The site is a short drive from Billings.
- 3 Beartooth Highway - Forbes calls it one of the country's most dazzling drives. This scenic pass is Montana's most beautiful gateway to Yellowstone National Park.
- 4 Chief Joseph Scenic Byway - Chief Joseph led the Nez Perce Indians out of Yellowstone National Park and into Montana along this same route in 1877. Catch panoramic views at Dead Indian Mountain Pass on WY Hwy 296.

- 5 Yellowstone National Park - The world's first National Park. Geysers, mud pots, painted canyons, wildlife and recreation make this one of the best in the world.
- 6 Makoshika State Park - Travel where the tyrannosaurus and triceratops once roamed at Makoshika State Park, Montana's largest state park. Watch your step, as dinosaur fossils have been discovered across the 11,538-acre park.
- 7 Devils Tower National Monument - Towering 1,000 feet above the Belle Fourche River, this naturally formed landscape is one of the most astounding geological features in the country.
- 8 Mount Rushmore National Monument - 60-foot portraits of past presidents carved into granite. Do we need to say more?
- 9 Badlands National Park - Celebrate natural wonders featuring dramatic landscapes of rock formations, canyons, and spires.
- 10 Glacier National Park - Inspiring glacier-carved peaks and valleys running through Montana's Rocky Mountains into Canada.
